

RULES FOR AN IFBB ATHLETE TO APPLY FOR THE PRO CARD

(on duty since January 2016. Without retroactive effect)

An IFBB amateur athlete may opt to obtain a pro card, if he/she has placed:

1. In an IFBB World/ IFBB Continental Championships, the following places of the following categories:

Men's Bodybuilding	one-time winner of his category
Men's Physique	one-time winner of his category
Women's Physique	one-time winner of her category
Women's Body Fitness	one-time winner of her category
Women's Bikini Fitness	one-time winner of her category
Women's Fitness	one-time winner of her category

2. In one official IFBB Pro Qualifier event (Arnold Classic, Olympia Amateur, Ben Weider Legacy Cup/ IFBB Diamond Cup, others). If placing as follows:

Men's Bodybuilding	one-time winner in the overall/ two times winner in his category
Men's Physique	one-time winner in the overall/ two times winner in his category
Women's Physique	one-time winner in the overall/ two times winner in his category
Women's Body Fitness	one-time winner in the overall/ two times winner in her category
Women's Bikini Fitness	one-time winner in the overall/ two times winner in her category
Women's Fitness	one-time winner in the overall/ two times winner in her category

For example, and athlete can obtain the pro card if he / she:

An athlete that was placed winner in his category at the Asian Championships (continental championship).

An athlete that was placed overall winner in the Ben Weider Legacy Cup (pro qualifier event)

An athlete that was placed first in his category at the Olympia in Spain (pro qualifier) and as well at the IFBB Diamond Cup in Slovakia (pro qualifier)

To qualify as a pro athlete, the class has to be composed by at least 15 athletes.

Only athletes competing in Senior Category can qualify as a Pro.

Junior and Master athletes can only apply for a pro card through competing in Senior Category.

The IFBB athletes, who are eligible to obtain the pro card, will have to submit their application through their national federations to the IFBB Head office in Madrid