2017 Grand Prix PEPA and Sport Weekend - Opava

39th IFBB Amateur International Competition

Oc tober 28th, 2017

INFORMATION

Welcome:

The Organizing Committee of the PEPA Fitness, the City of Opava and Mr. Stanislav Pesat take this opportunity to invite all IFBB-affiliated National Federations to participate in the 39th edition of the GP PEPA Opava international competition to be held in Opava, Czech Republic, on October 28th, 2017.

Location

The city of Opava is located 360 km East from Prague and 30 km from the city of Ostrava. Opava is situated at the confluence of the Silesian rivers Opava and Moravice. The earliest written record of the existence of Opava dates back to 1195, to the days when it was a crossroad of trade routes. But it was only by a decree, issued by King Přemysl I in 1224, that it received recognition as a town. Two market places were established in the centre of the town. Opava as part of the Czech crown lands became the centre of the Opava region's principality. In 1742, after Austria lost the war of their "inheritance" against Prussia, Opava became the capital of so-called Austria-Silesia and simultaneously the seat of the authorities that administered the land on behalf of the rulers. In 1820 the most prominent European monarchs and diplomats of the time convened here at the "Opava Congress".

Opava – rich in history and historic landmarks – is also an important cultural centre for the region. Since 1805 the Silesian Theatre has staged shows. The oldest museum in the Czech Republic, which is in Opava, opened its doors to the public in 1814.

Education system in Opava gained prestige in 1991 with the establishment of the Silesian

University. In fact it has become the centre of important sports events.
